Steps away from the Schuylkill River, nestled within the picturesque Fairmount Park, lies the architecturally magnificent Memorial Hall.

This national treasure from Philadelphia's 1876 Centennial Exhibition is now home to Please Touch Museum® and serves as one of the region's most spectacular event spaces, accommodating receptions as large as 3,000 guests. From elaborate weddings and Bar & Bat Mitzvahs to unique corporate galas and philanthropic productions, Please Touch Museum® at Memorial Hall is sure to impress.

Brûlée Catering (formerly known as Max & Me Catering) produces events of any scale - with distinguished culinary talent, a discerning service staff and grand presentation. Trusted by an impressive list of event planners, social, corporate and institutional clients to provide superior cuisine and execute flawless events, Brûlée Catering is the exclusive culinary provider to Please Touch Museum at Memorial Hall.

HAMILTON hall

With 60ft ceilings and a majestic dome above, the Beaux Art architecture of Hamilton Hall offers a dramatic space for all types of events. Host your event against the backdrop of a 40ft replica of the Statue of Liberty Arm and Torch made out of toys by famed local artist Leo Sewell, while dancing the night away on the beautiful original marble floors.
